Chapter 11
 Case No. 08-35653-KRH
 (Jointly Administered)

Objection to Disallowance of Claim against Circuit City Stores for payment of wages.

Re Claim: 15233

William F. Harmon

Claim Amount: $1,437.93 for unpaid wages

Dear Sirs,

I am writing to object to the plans outlined for disallowing my claim against Circuit City Stores, Inc. for unpaid wages due to me from the period: 11/24/2005 – 12/07/2005. Previous to the time of the said payment I was just released from U.S. military basic and MOS training and was just getting back into my civilian life and taking care of my personal obligations. I was at the no point, to my knowledge aware that I had not cashed my check from my employer. I have already paid my taxes to the IRS on the said claim against said employer and do not understand why I should not be allowed to receive payment due to me for services rendered.

All knowledge of this payment can be accessed from my former employer at Circuit City Payroll, PO Box 31666, Charlotte, NC 28231-1666, 1-800-288-6353. They will have record of non-payment of the wages check in question.

I am enclosing a copy of my un-cashed check from Circuit City Stores, Inc. for the amount due to me and hope that you see fit to overrule the objection to the disallowance, and allow my claim to be processed.

I urge the United States Bankruptcy Court to fuse any plans or proposals, either now or in the future, to permit the disallowance of my claim against my former employer for wages owed to me.

Yours sincerely,

William F. Harmon
